

Working with Community Partners Learning Objectives

By the end of this course you will:

- Know your personal and professional motivations for linking with the local community and have identified potential community partners.
- Be able to advocate for the benefits of community partnership.
- Be clear about the next steps to take to develop a community partnership.

Introduction Learning Objectives

By the end of this introduction section you will:

- Understand Partnerships with Purpose and how it can inform community partnerships.
- Understand the role ethical practice plays in community partnerships.
- Understand how Museums Changes Lives can affect change at a community level.

Participatory Practice Learning Objectives

By the end of this section you will:

- Understand community and voluntary sector terminology and landscape.
- Be able to advocate the value and benefits of participatory practice.
- Be able to use different techniques to develop community partnerships.

Museum Context and Culture Learning Objectives

By the end of this section you will:

- Have identified ideas for community partnerships.
- Be able to effectively influence to affect change within your museum.
- Know the funding landscape to support community partnerships.

Community Partner Learning Objectives

By the end of this section you will:

- Understand the local context and landscape to explore potential community partners.
- Be able to engage effectively with potential community partners, using different techniques.
- Be able to offer support and encouragement community partners.

Putting it into Practice Learning Objectives

By the end of this section you will:

- Know your next steps and how to move ideas forward.
- Be able to evaluate effectively.
- Understand current trends – social prescribing and co-production.